Citi Appoints Angel Ng as Citi Country Officer for Hong Kong and Macau

HONG KONG – Citi today announced the appointment of Ms. Angel Ng as Citi Country Officer (CCO) for Hong Kong and Macau effective May 1, 2018. In this role, Angel will assume the overall management, operations and development of the entire Citi franchise in Hong Kong and Macau, working closely with local, regional and global Product and Function Heads to design, execute and embed the business strategy in Hong Kong and Macau and maintain strong relationships with clients, public sectors, regulators, governments and across our global organization. Angel will be a member of the Citi Asia Pacific Operating Committee and will report directly to Mr. Francisco Aristeguieta, Chief Executive Officer of Citi Asia Pacific.

Mr. Francisco Aristeguieta said, “Angel brings to the role a wealth of experience in building market-leading businesses that meet the evolving needs of our clients in a fast-changing, increasingly digital environment. Her strong track-record in building winning teams will be instrumental to our continued growth in what is a strategically important and core market to our franchise in Asia.”

Angel first joined Citibank in 1998 and had assumed leadership positions within the bank, including head of retail banking, marketing, wealth management, and cards. In June 2015, Angel was appointed Consumer Business Manager for Hong Kong, where she contributed significantly to driving the digital transformation and cultivating a culture of innovation across the consumer business. Under her leadership, Citibank Hong Kong has delivered strong client-led growth over the past years and was also the first to launch full-suite consumer Open API platform in Hong Kong, among other innovative service offerings.

Angel is currently the Chief Executive and a member of the Board of Directors of Citibank (Hong Kong) Limited.

A strong advocate of work-life balance and diversity, Angel was the co-chairperson of the Citi Women’s Network Hong Kong for 2015-16. She is also a founding member of the Hong Kong Women CEO Network which supports and drives initiatives to promote greater gender diversity in the financial services industry in Hong Kong.

Prior to Citibank, Angel had held a number of senior roles in Procter & Gamble and China Light and Power HK Ltd. Angel has a Bachelor of Business Administration degree with the Chinese University of Hong Kong.
